

Passed the STANDUP Act in the House

Passed legislation in the House of Representatives to increase funding for student trainings for suicide prevention.

Protected and Expanded Tele-mental Health during COVID-19

Successfully partnered with states and payors to increase and restore commercial and state-based insurance plan coverage.

367 Advocates Trained

Trained and organized eating disorders advocates for virtual advocacy days, who met with approximately 250 bipartisan, bicameral Congressional offices.

Organized 8 Virtual Congressional Briefings

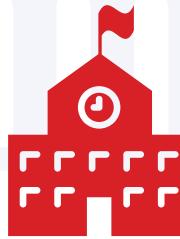

Topics included military mental health, maternal mental health, parental leave, black maternal mental health, eating disorders, COVID-19 impact on women's behaviors, and the implications of the 2020 election for women's health. A total of 1,783 people attended these briefings, including Congressional staff, federal agency staff, representatives from nonprofit organizations, and patient advocates.

Defended Affordable Mental Health Care

Successfully defended against legislative provisions that would decrease access to care, increase costs to patients, and remove patients' rights to appeal insurance denials.

$132M Funded For the STOP School Violence Act

$4M ↑

Funding for suicide and school violence awareness and prevention programing.

$132M Total Funding

150 New Bipartisan Cosponsors

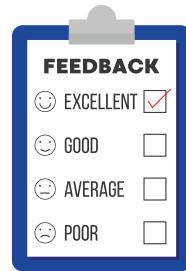

150 new bipartisan, bicameral cosponsors for partner legislation, including Sandy Hook Promise's STANDUP Act, the Eating Disorders Coalition's Nutrition CARE Act, National Eating Disorder Association's Eating Disorder Prevention in Schools Act, and the REDC Consortium and the Eating Disorders Coalition's SERVE Act.

Maternal Mental Health Hotline

$3M Passed legislation to fund a new maternal mental health hotline for new and expecting mothers to have 24/7 support.

Passed Public Health Surveillance of Eating Disorders

Passed legislation to urge the CDC to re-include surveillance of eating disorders signs and symptoms in youth and adults.

Amplified 1st Social and Economic Impact Report

Educated a minimum of 225K people via social media, 150 national mental health, education, and health nonprofits, 6 federal agencies, and secured 4 news segments.

Urged Increase in Eating Disorders Research

Passed legislation requesting NIH prioritize and increase eating disorders research.

T H A N K Y O U T O O U R P A R T N E R S